0. The Andrew Rankine Collection

Andrew Rankine (1930–1985) (John Chambers, editor)

I've collected all of Andrew Rankine's tunes that I've found online in ABC format. I've transcribed a lot of them myself, mostly from recordings or from handouts at SCD events, over the years that I've been playing for Scottish dances. Many tunes are here in several versions. In Jan 2017, I got a copy of the Complete Andrew Rankine Collection, selected the closest version of each, and transcribed the few missing tunes. Those versions have the book's tune count at the start of their names, and are listed here in the book's order, with a triple horizontal line to separate them from the other transcriptions that I'm still finding and linking here.
